Local Hope Chapter Presents Medallions

Highlighting the Torrance Chapter City of Hope "Break the Bank" dinner-dance held Saturday, Feb. 3, at the Palms Restaurant were the surprise awards given members in recognition of service.

The exclusive "500 club" medallion was awarded to Mrs. Bert Lynn and Mrs. Walter West. Mr. Bert Lynn, a member of the chapter board of directors, made the award before approximately 200 members and guests attending the dinner.

The "500 club" medallion is given in honored recognition to those who raise $500 or more each calendar year to help advance the program of the City of Hope. The medallion is worn to all City of Hope functions and meetings as a mark of distinction, as it symbolizes the recipient's sincere devotion to the ideals and objectives of the City of Hope.

Mrs. Bert Lynn in turn presented Sam Levy and Bert Lynn each with a life membership pin, a small replica of the "Torch of Hope."

Mrs. Herman Weston, chapter president, rephrased an old cliché, "A woman behind every successful man," and gave certificates of appreciation to the patient and helpful men behind the successful women: Ed Schwartz, Mack Brown, Harry Mandel, Frank Sciarotta, Fred Ball, James Rae, Al Felson, Walter West, and Herman Weston.

Noted guests attending were Rabbi and Mrs. Henri Front, Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen, and City Manager Wade Peables.

Wells-Showers Vows Read In Candlelight Services

Harbor City Foursquare Church was the setting for an evening wedding recently in which Miss Jean Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Wells, 2408 236th St., exchanged her marriage promises with Billy Joe Showers, son of Burton Longlois of Robeline, La.

Rev. Marion Piles officiated at the wedding and Mrs. Charles Coen played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Johnny Kaboyashi who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Together with Him."

For the wedding, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a fitted bodice with a scalloped bateau neckline outlined in seed pearls. The full lace skirt of the gown fell over net ruffles. The fingertip illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and the bride carried white orchids encircled by lilies-of-the-valley. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Sandra Wells was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Smith and Miss Judy Wilson. All wore pale blue lace and organza dresses. Their bouquets were of pink rosebuds. Candles were lighted by Miss Darlene Buth and Ronald McCarron.

Joe W. Evans was best man. Ushers were Robert Wells, Ronald McCarron, W. B. Barber and Ronald Smith. A reception was held in the chapel with Karen Sigler in charge of the guest book.

The couple spent a honeymoon at Malibu and are living in Wilmington. The bride was graduated from Torrance High and the Long Beach Business College.

Her husband was graduated from the Bossier, La. High school. He is serving with the United States Navy stationed in Long Beach.
